

Reading and Interpreting Pie Charts - Budgets

Look at the pie charts below and answer the questions. Use the information given to find the percentages and amounts spent in each category.

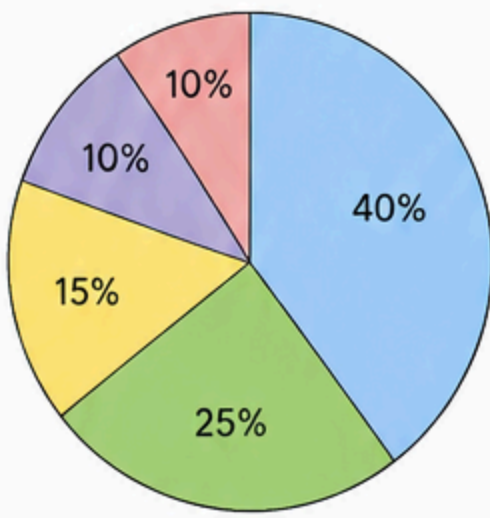

1. The pie chart shows how a household spends its weekly budget.
The total weekly budget is $800.

- Housing (rent)
- Food
- Transport
- Utilities (power, water, internet)
- Other

- a) What percentage is spent on housing?
_____ %
- b) How much is spent on food?
$ _____
- c) What is the amount spent on transport?
$ _____
- d) Which category takes the smallest share of the budget?

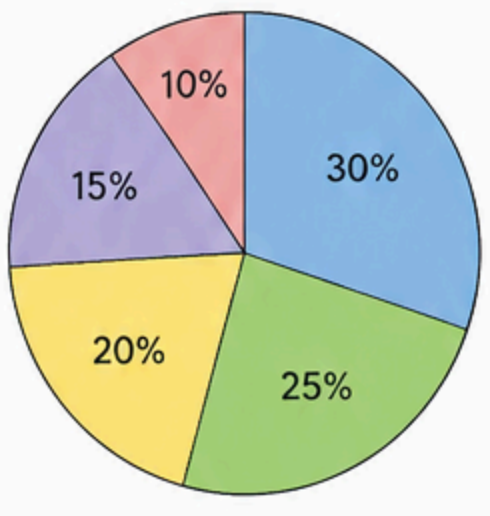

2. The pie chart shows how another household spends its monthly budget.
The total monthly budget is $2 000.

- Housing (rent)
- Food
- Transport
- Entertainment
- Other

- a) How much is spent on housing?
$ _____
- b) What percentage is spent on entertainment?
_____ %
- c) How much is spent on transport?
$ _____
- d) What is the combined amount for food and transport?
$ _____

3. The pie chart shows the breakdown of a different household budget.
The total weekly budget is $600.

- Housing (rent)
- Food
- Transport
- Utilities (power, water, internet)
- Other

- a) What percentage is spent on utilities?
_____ %
- b) How much is spent on transport?
$ _____
- c) What percentage is spent on food?
_____ %
- d) Which category has the largest amount spent on?
