

Conjunctions to Join Sentences

Name: _____

Date: _____

Remember: Conjunctions are joining words. We use and, but, and or to join two simple sentences together.

- and – adds information
- but – shows a contrast or difference
- or – shows a choice

Part A: Choose the correct conjunction

Circle the best conjunction to join each pair of sentences.

1. I wanted to play outside. It was raining heavily.

and / but / or

2. We can go to the park. We can visit the museum.

and / but / or

3. Sam finished his homework. He played video games.

and / but / or

4. The cat is small. It is very brave.

and / but / or

Part B: Join the sentences

Use and, but, or or to join each pair of sentences. Write the new sentence on the line.

1. The dog barked loudly. The cat ran away.

2. I like chocolate ice cream. I don't like vanilla.

3. You can have an apple. You can have a banana.

4. Mia studied hard for the test. She felt confident.

Part C: Complete the sentences

Finish each sentence with your own idea. Remember to use the conjunction correctly!

1. I went to the beach and _____

2. The book was long but _____

3. We could watch a movie or _____

4. My brother loves rugby and _____